

The Queenslander Pictorial.

THE LATE MR ANDREW CARNEGIE,
Philanthropist and Founder of Libraries.

EXPLOSION AND AFTER-COMMENTS 14 PHOTOS

These photographs, taken by British aircraft in the hours after the explosion, show how the village was directly west of the line of the north by the destruction of buildings and great loss of life.

THE VILLAGE OF GERNSEY, BEFORE EXPLOSION

THE VILLAGE OF GERNSEY AS IT APPEARED SIX WEEKS LATER

THE VILLAGE OF GERNSEY, BEFORE EXPLOSION

THE VILLAGE OF GERNSEY SIX WEEKS LATER

BEFORE AND AFTER—SHOW REMOVAL OF THICKENED FRONTS.

They are made with some in this in France. What was once a thick forest is now surrounded by only a few small groups, everything has disappeared before the German soldiers of the.

THICKENED WOOD. IN THIS AREA ALSO, BEFORE IT BECAME THE OBJECTIVE OF CONCENTRICALLY ATTACKING THE.

THICKENED WOOD AFTER THE REMOVAL, SHOWN IN A COMPLETELY OPENED-UP AREA.

MOVIECAM VILLAGE BEFORE THE REMOVAL.

MOVIECAM AFTER IT WAS BURNED DOWN BY THE NAZIS.

HOW KINGAROO CELEBRATED PEACE

Head of the Peace Day Procession

Another Section of the Procession

A "Peace" Tableau in the Procession

At the Show Ground when the Returned Soldiers were in the Street

TO FLY TO AUSTRALIA—THE THREE AUSTRALIANS AMONG TWO OF THEM QUEENSLANDERS WHO ARE TO FLY THE BLACKBURN AIRCRAFT "SARGANT" FROM ENGLAND TO AUSTRALIA.

They are: Lieutenant Stanley Smith (R.N.), pilot, Lieutenant Mervyn (R.N.), navigator, and Lieutenant Harold (R.N.), navigator. The "Sargant" has a wing span of 70 ft., and runs along against its own propeller. It is said to fly 100 miles an hour.

—Central Photo Press.

One of Brisbane's Commanding View Points - Taylor's Range

Brisbane from the summit of Taylor's Range, Queensland Island.

Overlapping Enoggera water reservoir, farms in foreground.

Looking towards Flinders Island.

View showing the Brisbane River and part of the city.

R. L. Bush, photo.

A FINE SPECIMEN OF A BARTHOLOMEW BATTLE.
Baby wrapped at the age of six days, weight, 12 lb.

—R. A. Kline photo.

A NEW DRESS DRESSING.

The "Dress" dress" dress dress in "Dress" dress and below in "Dress", which is used in the dress of dress in some parts of Queensland. —
"Patriot."

RUINS OF THE CONVENT OF THE HOLY NAME, BOMBOMB.
Destroyed by fire on August 10.

—C. W. Callahan photo.

A GATHERING OF THE LYNN TOWN BROTHERS.

The emergency meeting of the Town of Lynch, who did make plans and relief work under the supervision of the Town Council. The gathering of the citizens has led to the suspension of the work, but the members are still prepared for action should a fresh emergency arise.

"WATERSIDE ARE BEHIND IN WATER CLEAR."

A party gathered at the Waterside House at Lynch.

—E. F. B. photo.